

Writing Lowercase Letters

j

Trace and then write your own

The handwriting practice section consists of six rows of horizontal lines. Each row is defined by a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first row contains six dotted lowercase 'j' characters for tracing. The following five rows each contain six blank spaces between the lines, intended for independent practice of writing the letter 'j'.