

Writing Uppercase Letters

K

Trace and then write your own

The form consists of six horizontal rows, each designed for handwriting practice. Each row is bounded by a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first five characters in each row are dotted uppercase 'K's, intended for tracing. The remaining space in each row is left blank for the student to practice writing the letter independently.